DMCI Mining shipments surge 88% in H1; braces for weaker H2

Background/Description of the Disclosure

DMCI Mining Corporation recorded an 88 percent improvement in nickel shipments from January to June this year at 482,762 wet metric tons (WMT) from 257,120 WMT the year before.

Majority of the shipments, or 430 thousand WMT, came from the old stockpile of Berong Nickel Corporation (BNC) while the rest were from the inventory of Zambales Diversified Metals Corporation (ZDMC).

For the second quarter alone, BNC shipped 327 thousand WMT while ZDMC made no shipments pending the reissuance of its port permit.

The old stockpiles of BNC and ZDMC were produced at a lower cost, which helped boost the performance of DMCI Mining.

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources allowed suspended mining companies to ship out their stockpiles to limit the possible accumulation of silt in nearby bodies of water.

"We had a really good first semester. Our subsidiaries were able to ship more high-grade nickel ore at a higher selling price," explained DMCI Mining president Cesar F. Simbulan, Jr.

"But we are expecting a drastic drop in nickel shipments in the second half because our old stockpile is nearly depleted. Weather conditions will also make it difficult for us to ship what is left in our inventory," he added.

Average nickel grade and average selling price both increased during the first half of 2018. From 1.56 percent, average nickel grade increased 11 percent to 1.73 percent year-on-year. During the same reporting period, average selling price grew 10 percent from US$35 to US$39.

Second quarter average nickel grade improved 8 percent year-on-year from 1.62 percent to 1.75 percent.

DMCI Mining revenues grew 114 percent from P458 million to P978 million for the first semester of 2018. Net income during the same period surged 731 percent from P38 million to P316 million.

From April to June this year, earnings from the nickel business increased 978 percent from P23 million to P248 million.
