

BOARD CHARTER

(Amended August 2016)

INTRODUCTION

Complementary to Law and Articles

The Board Charter (the “Charter”) governs the relationship between the Board Committees and the Board as contained in the charters of the committees which have been approved and adopted by the Board. The Charter is intended to complement or supplement the Corporation Code of the Philippines, the Corporation’s Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, issuances of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. (PSE) and other applicable laws, rules and regulations.

SECTION 1: BOARD COMPOSITION

- 1. Number of Directors – The Corporation’s Board is composed of nine (9) directors, two (2) of which shall be Independent Directors, who are elected by the stockholders.¹
- 2. Positions - The membership of the Board may be a combination of executive and non-executive directors (which include Independent Directors). The non-executive directors should possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board.²
- 3. Committees - The Board shall constitute the proper committees to assist it in good corporate governance. Pursuant to the Corporation’s Manual on Corporation Governance, the Board must have the following committees: (a) Audit; (b) Nomination and Election; (c) Compensation and Remuneration; (d) Risk Oversight; and (e) Corporate Governance.
- 4. Board Profile – The Board, in consultation with the Nomination and Election Committee, shall be responsible to review the profile of its size and composition, considering the nature of its business and subsidiaries, and the desired expertise and background of the board members.

- 5. Independence – The Board shall have at least two (2) Independent Directors or consist at least 20% of the members of the Board as required by the rules of the SEC and the PSE. Provided further, the Corporation may choose to have more Independent Directors in the Board than as required in the Corporation’s By-Laws.

For this purpose, an "Independent Director" shall mean a person who apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and substantial shareholders free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director of the Corporation.³

SECTION 2: ELECTION OF THE BOARD

- 1. Nomination of Directors - Candidates for the Board of Directors shall be nominated by a stockholder of the Corporation. Pursuant to the Corporation Code, any stockholder who holds at least one (1) share of stock shall be entitled to nominate and elect a candidate for Board position. The stockholder shall submit a nomination letter to the Nomination and Election Committee (NOMELEC) together with the written consent of the nominee. The NOMELEC shall review and pre-screen the qualifications of each candidate in accordance to the qualifications and disqualifications set in the Corporation’s By-Laws and Manual on Corporate Governance. The NOMELEC must ensure that these qualifications are aligned with the corporate strategic direction of the Corporation. The shortlist of candidates shall be disclosed in the Definitive Information Statement to be distributed to the stockholders.
- 2. Manner of Election – A majority of the outstanding shares of stocks in person or represented by proxy, shall be sufficient at a stockholders’ meeting to constitute a quorum for the election of directors. A person who holds at least one (1) common share of stock of the Corporation is eligible to be nominated and elected as a director.⁴
- 3. Term of Office – The elected members of the board of directors shall hold office for one (1) year, until their successors are elected and qualified.⁵
- 4. Term limits for Independent Directors – The Independent Directors can serve as such for five (5) consecutive years, provided that service for a period of at least six (6) months shall be equivalent to one (1) year, regardless of the manner by which the Independent Director position was relinquished or terminated.⁶

⁴ Amended By-Laws Article III

⁵ Amended By-Laws Article III

⁶ SEC Memo Circular No. 9

- 5. Re-election of Independent Directors – After completion of the five (5)-year service period, an Independent Director shall be ineligible for election as such in the same company unless the Independent Director has undergone a “cooling off” period of two (2) years, provided that during such period, the Independent Director concerned has not engaged in any activity that under existing rules disqualifies a person from being elected as Independent Director in the same company.⁷
- An Independent Director re-elected as such in the same company after the “cooling off” period can serve for another four (4) consecutive years.⁸
- After serving as Independent Director for nine (9) years,⁹ the Independent Director shall be perpetually barred from being elected as such in the same company without prejudice to being elected as Independent Director in other companies outside of the business conglomerate, where applicable, under the same conditions provided for in the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
- 6. Resignation - Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairman of the Corporation. The resignation of any director shall take effect as of the date of its acceptance by the Board of Directors.¹⁰

SECTION 3: BOARD MEETINGS

- 1. Regular Meetings - Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held every quarter on such date, time and at principal office or such place as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Vice Chairman, the President and Chief Executive Officer, or a majority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.¹¹
- The Corporate Secretary shall schedule all regular board and committee meetings at the start of the financial year.
- 2. Board Attendance – Each director must attend at least 75% of all the Board meetings held during the year.¹²
- 3. Organizational Meetings -The Board of Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, election of officers and the transaction of other business, as soon as practicable after each annual election of directors or on the same day, and if practical at the same place at which regular meetings of the stockholders are held.¹³

4. Notice of Meetings – Notice of either regular or special meetings shall be sent to each director at least five (5) business days before the date of meeting. The notice of meeting shall include the time and place of the meeting and the agenda subjects to be discussed. Each director is free to raise at any Board meeting subjects that are not on the agenda for that meeting. Subject to any applicable notice requirements, directors having items to suggest for inclusion on the agenda for future Board meetings should advise the Chairman well in advance of such item.¹⁴
5. Quorum - A quorum at any meeting of the directors shall consist of a majority of the number of directors, provided, however that an Independent Director shall always be in attendance.¹⁵ For major board decisions, a minimum quorum of at least 2/3 is required.¹⁶
6. Conduct of the Meetings –
 - a. Board of Directors - Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, or in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, or in the absence of the latter, the President and Chief Executive Officer, or if none of the foregoing is in office and present and acting, by any other director chosen by the Board. The Corporate Secretary shall act as secretary of every meeting, and if he is unable to do so, the Chairman of the meeting shall appoint a secretary of the meeting.¹⁷
 - b. Board Committees - Members of the Board Committees should attend committee meetings at least twice a year, except for the Audit Committee and Corporate Governance Committee which should meet at least four (4) times every year.¹⁸
 - c. Board Meeting Materials – The Board of Directors must be provided meeting materials at least five (5) business days in advance of the Board meeting.¹⁹
7. Executive Sessions – The independent and non-executive directors must meet separately at least once during the year without any executives present.²⁰

8. Minutes of the Meetings – Minutes of the meeting shall be taken and recorded by the Corporate Secretary and signed by the Chairman of the Board or the person who were appointed to take notes during the meeting.
9. Attendance in Board Meeting - The members of the Board should attend its regular and special meetings in person or through teleconferencing conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission.

Independent directors should always attend Board meetings. Unless otherwise provided in the By-Laws, their absence shall not affect the quorum requirement. However, the Board may, to promote transparency, require the presence of at least one independent director in all its meetings.²¹

The Chairman, Chief Executive Officer or Committee Chairpersons may from time to time invite corporate officers, other employees and advisors to attend Board or committee meetings whenever deemed appropriate.

Directors are encouraged to attend all annual meetings of shareholders.

SECTION 4: BOARD DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Duties and Responsibilities of the Board – the Board of Directors are responsible to foster the long-term success of the Corporation and secure its sustained competitiveness in a manner consistent with its fiduciary responsibility, which it shall exercise in the best interest of the Corporation, its stockholders and other stakeholders.
