EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHARTER

November 2017

Purpose

The Executive Committee (“ExCom”) of DMCI Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) shall exercise the powers and authority of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) when the latter is not in session or when it is impractical to immediately hold a meeting of the Board.

Membership

The ExCom shall be composed of five members to be elected by the Board from among its members, immediately after the annual stockholders’ meeting, and shall serve as such for a term of one year, or until the next annual stockholders’ meeting.

The members of the ExCom shall designate one of them as Chairman of the ExCom and another member as Vice Chairman of the ExCom. The Corporate Secretary of the Company shall serve as Secretary of the meetings of the ExCom.

Any member of the ExCom may be removed from the committee, with or without cause, by majority vote of the Board.

Any vacancy in the membership of the ExCom may be filled by a majority vote of the Board.

The Presidents or Chief Executive Officers of the Company’s subsidiaries may be appointed by the Board as ex-officio members of the ExCom.

Quorum

A majority of the members of the ExCom shall constitute a quorum for the holding of an ExCom meeting, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the ExCom members present at a duly constituted ExCom meeting shall be required to approve any matter requiring ExCom approval or pass a resolution of the ExCom.

Meetings

The ExCom shall meet at least twice a year upon the call of its Chairman, or in his absence, by the Vice-Chairman. Meetings of the ExCom shall be held at the principal office of the Company unless the Chairman, or in his absence, the Vice Chairman, should fix a different venue for the ExCom meeting.

Notice of ExCom meetings shall be sent to the ExCom members at least one week prior to the scheduled meeting.

Meetings of the ExCom may be held via teleconferencing or videoconferencing.

The minutes of ExCom meetings shall be submitted to the Board for information and ratification at the next succeeding meeting of the Board.

Procedures

The ExCom may establish such rules of procedure as it deems necessary from time to time.

Powers, Duties and Responsibilities

The ExCom shall act on such specific matters within the competence of the Board as may be delegated to it by the majority of the Board, except with respect to:

- a. Approval of any action for which shareholders' approval is also required;
- b. Filling of vacancies in the Board of Directors;
- c. Amendment or repeal of the By-laws, or the adoption of new By-laws of the Corporation;
- d. Amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;
- e. Declaration and distribution of cash dividends to shareholders; and
- f. Any matter that may be limited by law, or by the Board of Directors by the majority vote of its members.

The ExCom shall also have authority to:

- a. Review the financial performance of the various subsidiaries of the Company.
- b. Assist the Board in overseeing the implementation of strategies and sustaining the Company's long-term growth and success, in a manner consistent with the Company's vision and mission.
- c. Approve the sale of Company vehicles and other disposal of Company assets in the ordinary course of business.
- d. Approve and designate authorized signatories for contracts with utility providers in the ordinary course of business, such as those for mobile phone subscription, telecommunications and internet services, electricity and water, contracts for security and janitorial services, contracts for acquisition of office supplies, furniture and equipment, and other similar contracts in the usual course of business.

Assessment

The ExCom shall conduct a self-assessment of its performance at least once a year.

Review and Amendment of this Charter

The ExCom shall review this Charter as needed. Any amendment to this Charter shall be made only with the prior approval of the Board of Directors.

BOARD CHARTER

(Amended November 2017)

INTRODUCTION

Complementary to Law and Articles

The Board Charter (the “Charter”) governs the relationship between the board committees and the board of directors as provided in the charters of the committees which were approved and adopted by the board. The Charter is intended to complement or supplement the Corporation Code of the Philippines, the Corporation’s articles of incorporation and by-laws, issuances of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. (PSE) and other applicable laws, rules and regulations.

SECTION 1: BOARD COMPOSITION

- 1. Number of Directors – The Corporation’s Board is composed of nine (9) directors, two (2) of whom shall be Independent Directors, who are elected by the stockholders.¹
- 2. Positions - The membership of the Board may be a combination of executive and non-executive directors (which include independent directors). The non-executive directors should possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board.²
- 3. Committees - The Board shall constitute the proper committees to assist it in good corporate governance. Pursuant to the Corporation’s Manual on Corporate Governance, the Board must have the following committees: (a) Audit and Related Party Transaction, (b) Board Risk Oversight, (c) Corporate Governance (with functions of Nomination and Election and Compensation and Remuneration), and (d) Executive Committee.

4. Board Profile – The Board, in consultation with the Corporate Governance Committee (CG), shall be responsible to review the profile of its size and composition, considering the nature of its business and subsidiaries, and the desired expertise and background of the board members.
5. Independence – The Board shall have at least two (2) independent directors or consist at least 20% of the members of the board as required by the rules of the SEC and the PSE. Provided further, that the Corporation may choose to have more independent directors in the Board than as required in the Corporation’s By-Laws.

For this purpose, an "independent director" shall mean a person who apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and substantial shareholders free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director of the Corporation.³

SECTION 2: ELECTION OF THE BOARD

1. Nomination of Directors - Candidates for the Board of Directors shall be nominated by a stockholder of the Corporation. Pursuant to the Corporation Code, any stockholder who holds at least one (1) share of stock shall be entitled to nominate and elect a candidate for Board position. The stockholder shall submit a nomination letter to the Board of Directors together with the written consent of the nominee at least 60 days before the scheduled date of the annual stockholders’ meeting. The Board shall endorse the nomination to the CG Committee (which functions as the Nomination and Election Committee) who shall then review and pre-screen the qualifications of each candidate in accordance to the qualifications and disqualifications set in the Corporation’s By-Laws and Manual on Corporate Governance. The CG Committee must ensure that these qualifications are aligned with the corporate strategic direction of the Corporation. The shortlist of candidates shall be disclosed in the Definitive Information Statement to be distributed to the stockholders.
2. Manner of Election – A majority of the outstanding shares of stocks in person or represented by proxy, shall be sufficient at a stockholders’ meeting to constitute a quorum for the election of directors. A person who holds at least one (1) common share of stock of the Corporation is eligible to be nominated and elected as a director.⁴

3. Term of Office – The elected members of the board of directors shall hold office for one (1) year, until their successors are elected and qualified.⁵
4. Term limits for Independent Directors – The Independent Director shall serve for a maximum cumulative term of nine (9) years. The cumulative period shall start from the year 2012 in accordance with the rules and circulars of the SEC. After which, the independent director shall be perpetually barred from re-election as such in the same company, but he/she may continue to qualify for nomination and election as a non-independent director. In the instance that a company wants to retain an independent director who has served for nine years, the Board should provide meritorious justification/s and seek shareholders’ approval during the annual shareholders’ meeting.⁶
5. Resignation - Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board and the Corporate Secretary of the Corporation. The resignation of any director shall take effect as of the date of its acceptance by the Board of Directors.⁷

SECTION 3: BOARD MEETINGS

1. Regular Meetings - Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held every quarter on such date, time and at principal office or such place as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Vice Chairman, the President and Chief Executive Officer, or a majority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.⁸

The Corporate Secretary shall schedule all regular board and committee meetings at the start of the financial year.

2. Board Attendance – Each director must attend at least 75% of all the board meetings held during the year⁹.

⁵ Amended By-Laws Article III

⁶ SEC Memo Circular No. 4 S-2017

⁷ Amended By-Laws Article III Section 11

⁸ Amended By-Laws Article III Section 7

⁹ ACGS E.3.3

3. Organizational Meetings -The Board of Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, election of officers and the transaction of other business, as soon as practicable after each annual election of directors or on the same day, and if practical at the same place at which regular meetings of the stockholders are held.¹⁰
4. Notice of Meetings – Notice of either regular or special meetings shall be sent to each director at least five (5) business days before the date of meeting. The notice of meeting shall include the time and place of the meeting and the agenda subjects to be discussed. Each Director is free to raise at any Board meeting subjects that are not on the agenda for that meeting. Subject to any applicable notice requirements, Directors having items to suggest for inclusion on the agenda for future Board meetings should advise the Chairman well in advance of such item.¹¹
5. Quorum - A quorum at any meeting of the directors shall consist of two-thirds of the number of directors fixed in the Articles of Incorporation, provided, however that an independent director shall always be in attendance.¹² However, the absence of an independent director shall not affect the quorum requirements if he is duly notified of the meeting but deliberately and without justifiable cause, fails to attend the meeting. Resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be decided upon by at least 2/3 of the members of the board.¹³
6. Conduct of the Meetings –
 - a. Board of Directors - Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, or in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, or in the absence of the latter, the President and Chief Executive Officer, or if none of the foregoing is in office and present and acting, by any other director chosen by the Board. The Corporate Secretary shall act as secretary of every meeting, and if he is unable to do so, the Chairman of the meeting shall appoint a secretary of the meeting.¹⁴
 - b. Board Committees - Members of the Board Committees should attend committee meetings at least twice a year, except for the Audit Committee which should meet at four times (4) times every year.

- c. Board Meeting Materials – The board of directors must be provided meeting materials at least five (5) business days in advance of the board meeting¹⁵.
7. Executive Sessions – The independent and non-executive directors must meet separately at least once during the year without any executives present.¹⁶
8. Minutes of the Meetings – Minutes of the meeting shall be taken and recorded by the Corporate Secretary and signed by the Chairman of the Board or the person who were appointed to take notes during the meeting.
9. Attendance in Board Meeting - The members of the Board should attend its regular and special meetings in person or through teleconferencing conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission.

Independent directors should always attend board meetings. Unless otherwise provided in the by-laws, their absence shall not affect the quorum requirement. However, the Board may, to promote transparency, require the presence of at least one independent director in all its meetings¹⁷.

The Chairman, Chief Executive Officer or Committee Chairpersons may from time to time invite corporate officers, other employees and advisors to attend Board or committee meetings whenever deemed appropriate.

Directors are encouraged to attend all annual meetings of shareholders.

SECTION 4: BOARD DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Duties and Responsibilities of the Board – the Board of Directors is responsible to foster the long-term success of the Corporation and secure its sustained competitiveness in a manner consistent with its fiduciary responsibility, which it shall exercise in the best interest of the Corporation, the stockholders and other stakeholders. To ensure a high

 - i. The company secretary shall assist the Chairman of the board in organizing the board's activities including providing information, preparing an agenda, reporting of meetings, evaluations and training programs.
 - j. He/she shall perform such other duties as may be properly delegated to him/her²⁴.

SECTION 8: BOARD COMMITTEES

1. The Committees - The board may appoint committees from among its members to perform specific tasks. The board shall establish the following committees²⁵:
 - a. audit and related party transaction
 - b. board risk oversight
 - c. corporate governance (with functions of the nomination & election and remuneration and compensation committee)

The board may, from time to time, establish or maintain additional committees as necessary or appropriate.

2. Committee Reporting – Each committee must promptly inform the Board of the actions it has taken and major developments of which it becomes aware.
3. Committee Charters - The Charters shall indicate the roles and responsibilities of the committee, its composition and how it should perform its duties. It will set forth the purposes, goals and responsibilities of the committees as well as qualifications for committee membership, procedures for committee member appointment and removal, committee structure and operations and committee reporting to the Board.

²⁴ Amended By-Laws Article V Section 10 and New Manual on Corporate Governance 1.4

²⁵ New Manual of Corporate Governance, Item 3

SECTION 9: COMPENSATION OF BOARD MEMBERS

Each director shall receive a reasonable per diem for his attendance at every meeting of the Board. Subject to the approval of the stockholders owning at least a majority of the outstanding capital stock, directors may also be granted such compensation (other than per diems) provided however, that the total yearly compensation of directors, as such directors, shall not exceed ten (10%) percent of the net income before income tax of the Corporation during the preceding year²⁶.

The form and amount of Directors' compensation will be determined and approved by the Compensation and Remuneration Committee in accordance with the policies and principles set forth in its charter, and the Compensation and Remuneration Committee will conduct an annual review of Directors' compensation. The remuneration report will differentiate between executive and non-executive compensation.

Likewise, the company and its subsidiaries do not grant personal loans, guarantees or the like to board members.

SECTION 10: DIRECTORS' TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

- 1. Induction Program - Upon his or her election, each board member shall participate in an induction program that covers the company's strategy, general financial and legal affairs, financial reporting by the company, its compliance programs, the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, any specific aspects unique to the company and its business activities, and the responsibilities as a board member.

The Company shall provide a comprehensive orientation or training for first-time directors for at least eight hours, while the annual continuing training shall be for at least four hours. This training will assist the new directors.²⁷

- 2. Continuing Education Program - In order to facilitate the Directors' fulfillment of their responsibilities, the management must provide the following:

²⁶ Amended By-Laws Article III Section 13

²⁷ New Manual on Corporate Governance 1.2.2

- a. Annual review to identify areas where the board members require further training or education
 - b. Educational programs supplemental to the initial orientation to explain the Company's business operations
 - c. Access to, or notice of, continuing educational programs that are designed to keep Directors abreast of the latest developments in corporate governance matters and critical issues relating to the operation of public company boards.
 - d. Periodic visits to operating units, plants and mine sites.
- 3. Costs - The costs of the induction course and any training or education shall be paid for by the company.

SECTION 11: ANNUAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors will conduct an annual self-evaluation to determine whether it and its Committees are functioning effectively. The Corporate Governance Committee shall solicit comments from all Directors and report annually to the Board. The annual performance assessment must be divided into four sets:

- a. Board Appraisal
- b. Director Appraisal
- c. Committee Appraisal
- d. CEO Appraisal

The NOMELEC shall conduct an annual review of the performance of the board as well as the performance of individual board and the CEO. The process and the criteria in conducting the board, committees and CEO assessment will be formulated by the Corporate Governance Committee.

SECTION 12: SUCCESSION PLANNING FOR MANAGEMENT

The Board will evaluate potential successors and approve management succession strategies and plans for the President/CEO and other executive officers of the Company. The President/CEO should at all times, make available his or her recommendations and evaluations of potential successors, along with a review of any development plans recommended for such individuals.

SECTION 13: OTHER PROVISIONS

SECTION 14: CHARTER REVIEW

This Charter must be reviewed by the Board of Directors at least once a year or as often as deemed necessary. Any amendments and revisions to this Charter must be reviewed and approved by the Board prior to dissemination to the board members and posting it to the Corporation’s website.

NOMINATION AND ELECTION POLICY

(Amended November 2017)

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide clear protocols and procedures for the nomination and election of Directors that are consistent with the Company's By-laws. These procedures and protocols will be applied by the Company consistently, provided that they may be adapted to specific circumstances that may subsequently arise.

Nomination Procedures

1. Candidates for the Board of Directors shall be nominated by a stockholder of the Corporation. Pursuant to the Corporation Code, any stockholder (including a minority stockholder) shall be entitled to nominate a director.
2. The nominating stockholder shall submit a nomination letter to the Nomination and Election Committee (NOMELEC) together with the written consent of the nominee. In accordance with the provisions of Article III, Section 3 of the Amended By-Laws of the Corporation, all nominations for the election of directors shall be submitted in writing to the Board of Directors, with the consent of the nominees, at least sixty (60) days before the scheduled annual stockholders' meeting.
3. The NOMELEC shall review and pre-screen the qualifications of each candidate in accordance with the qualifications and disqualifications set in the Corporation's Amended By-Laws and Manual on Corporate Governance.

To ensure that these qualifications are aligned with the corporate strategic direction of the Corporation, the NOMELEC shall consider the following in the screening of candidates:

- a. Expertise - candidates with different backgrounds and who understand how the company's strategy aligns with the emerging trends and technology
