Gentlemen:

We reply to your request for clarifications on the news article entitled "DMCI reevaluates merger of two units" posted in Manila Standard (Online Edition) on August 21, 2022. The article reported in part that:

"DMCI Holdings Inc. said it plans to defer the proposed consolidation of Semirara Mining and Power Corp. and DMCI Mining over valuation issue.

DMCI president and chief executive Isidro Consunji said in a recent investor briefing sponsored by the Philippine Stock Exchange that at least 90 percent of mining assets of DMCI Mining were not issued necessary permits.

Consunji said in May the company was studying the possibly of transferring or consolidating DMCI Mining into Semirara to create shareholder value for both the stockholders of the two companies."

We confirm that during the PSE STAR (Strengthening Access and Reach): Investor Day event last August 16, DMCI Holdings and Semirara Mining and Power Corporation (SMPC) Chairman and CEO Isidro A. Consunji disclosed the deferment of the SMPC and DMCI Mining merger pending confirmation of the mineable reserves of the latter.

We also confirm that majority (at least 90%) of the mining assets of DMCI Mining have yet to be fully permitted.

Lastly, we confirm that during the May 17, 2022 Annual Stockholders' Meeting (ASM) of the Company, a stockholder asked about the possibility of transferring DMCI Mining to SMPC, to which Mr. Consunji replied that the matter is being studied as a way to create shareholder value for the stockholders of both companies.

This reply, together with the other questions and answers during the said ASM, was appended in the Minutes of the ASM and posted in the company website to comply with the provisions of the Company's Manual on Corporate Governance.
